

President Phones Eden Cease-Fire 'Delights' Him

Executive Acts After White House
Parley Maps Backing of U. N. Order

BULLETIN

CPYRGHT

President Eisenhower was described as "quite pleased" with the news today that Great Britain and France have ordered their forces to cease fire in Egypt at 7 p.m. (EST). The President telephoned British Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden and told him he was "delighted" at Mr. Eden's announcement of the cease-fire orders.

By GARNETT D. HORNER

President Eisenhower has warned Moscow that the United States will "oppose" any move of Soviet armed forces into the strife-torn Middle East.

His public warning, issued in a White House statement last night, left open the question of whether that opposition would include immediate use of American armed might against the Russians if they took such action.

At the same time, the Russians were told that it would be "sensible" for them to propose new steps for world peace only after calling off the Red Army from "brutally repressing" the Hungarian people.

Today, Mr. Eisenhower delayed his voting trip to Pennsylvania 40 minutes past schedule today and he was reported to have used the time for conferences on the boiling international situation.

The President put in an appearance at his office and was reported to have met there with Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover, Jr., and Allen Dulles, chief of the Central Intelligence Agency.

There was no word from the White House on the nature of the talks, but there appeared no

Russia Threatens Use of Force in Suez Crisis. Page A-3

Texts of White House Statement. Page A-3

Text of Bulganin Note to Britain and France. Page A-3

Text of Stevenson Statement on Middle East. Page A-3 doubt Mr. Eisenhower got a fill-in on latest word on the Russian attack on Hungary and the Middle East crisis. Those matters have largely occupied his time in recent days.